

1. Mum had not paid (hade inte betalat) our phone bill.
2. Do you think (Tror du) that anyone had seen (hade sett) Bob?
3. Has everyone remembered (Har alla kommit ihåg) to fill in their applications?
4. What has happened ? (har hänt)
5. Half a year ago Mr Thompson sold (sålde) all his things and went (for) to India with a religious group.
6. He came back/returned (kom tillbaka) to England last week.
7. I bought (köpte) all the necessary equipment for my trip this morning.
8. My girlfriend didn't write (skrev inte) to me, even if I had expected (hade väntat mig) to hear from her.
9. Someone has slept (har sovit) in my bed.
10. The girls have changed (har ändrat) their plans.
11. Brian likes (tycker om) cats, but his twin sister Cathy hates (avskyr) animals. Brian's and Cathy's parents don't like (tycker inte om) animals either.
12. Joan lives (bor) in Brighton, but her brothers live (bor) in Bath.
13. Have you forgotten (Har du glömt) what you promised (lovade) to do?
14. No, I haven't (det har jag inte), but I have had (har haft) so many other things to do lately.
15. Jim forgot to switch off (glömde att stänga av) the percolator, he didn't notice (märkte inte) that the red light was still on when he left (gav sig i väg).
16. Did you see (Såg du) what he had done (hade gjort)?
17. The children didn't want to (ville inte) go out.
18. Where did your brother go? (gick din bror) He went to borrow (gick) to the library (för att låna) a couple of books.
19. Doesn't he know (Vet han inte) that the library is closed on Sunday?
20. Why did you take them (förde du dem) to the wrong station?
21. Why does she look so angry? (ser hon så arg ut)
22. Had he shown you his new camera (Hade han visat sin nya kamera för dig?)
23. Fortunately she had not lost (hade hon inte tappat) her money.