

1. I will call you tomorrow.
2. Thomas is going to buy a new flat and his parents are going to build a house.
3. Churchill: "We shall never surrender."
4. Mum is about to leave but maybe she will have time to help you.
5. The train is leaving in ten minutes.
6. Major Evans: "You are to be here at six o'clock in the morning."
7. The results will be published immediately.
8. It is Christmas Eve and we are about to light the candles and open the presents.
9. Dad is taking the children to the zoo next Friday.
10. Are you going to tell him everything? No, I'm not.
11. Luigi is going back to Italy in a couple of days.
12. I will be back in two minutes.
13. What are you going to do tomorrow? I'm going to clean the kitchen.
14. The pupils/ students are to fill in a couple of forms and then they are to read two texts on their own.
15. Who is going to take care of the preparations? I don't know, maybe Jill will do it.
16. I will talk to her, I'm sure (that) she will understand what we mean.