

1. You don't have to worry about it/ that.
2. The prisoners were not allowed to leave the prison camp.
3. One should/ ought to be very careful, when the roads are slippery.
4. In January I will have to finish my thesis.
5. Unfortunately we have not been able to convince him that he is wrong.
6. My grandfather didn't know Finnish.
7. Shouldn't you get in touch with the headmaster.
8. All the children will be allowed to go to the zoo next Thursday.
9. The participants had not been able to read the instructions.
10. I'm sure that she will be able to translate everything.
11. The students / pupils wanted to go home after the test, they didn't want to attend P.E.
12. We have not been allowed to sing French songs.
13. I have not been able to convince them that I am right.
14. Tomorrow you will have to find out all the details.
15. Sometimes I have to/ must check the pronunciation of a word in a dictionary.
16. Yesterday I had to write a reply in German.
17. You should write down everything that I say, shouldn't you.
18. The children were not allowed/ permitted to run on the lawn.
19. I have had to read through everything twice.
20. He has had to prove that he is innocent.
21. They had not been able to interpret the message.
22. Reluctantly she agreed that she should work harder.
23. No one/ nobody has been allowed to leave the camp.
24. He might show you a very rare butterfly.